

If someone is suspended, can they continue to sell the products they produced prior to the suspension as organic?

No. During their term of suspension, they may not sell, label or represent products as organic. If they maintain certification with the ACA during their suspension, they may resume certified organic production immediately upon reinstatement by the USDA.

e-CFR